ISV Welcomes David Vorchheimer

David Vorchheimer is a partner in HWL Ebsworth's Planning, Environment & Government Group in Melbourne.

A Certified Practising Planner, David offers clients experience in all aspects of planning law. David's clients include a broad range of local governments and developers specialising in commercial and residential developments.

Prior to joining HWL Ebsworth, David was employed by the Office of the Premier of Victoria, where he was the Premier's Senior Adviser in relation to planning, building and local government matters.

David has also performed planning roles with a number of councils, including the cities of Knox, Yarra and Port Phillip. He is also a former president of the Planning Institute of Australia (Victorian Division) and has recently agreed to be ISV's Honorary Legal Counsel.

ISV will benefit from David's involvement via expert opinion for Traverse articles and event presentations, together with legal advice specific to ISV. Welcome David.

ISV President Rob Steel with Honorary Legal Counsel David Vorchheimer.

The Committee and members of The Institution of Surveyors Victoria acknowledge and thank our sustaining members for 2013
