Definitions

The following definitions apply in this Constitution unless the context construes an alternate interpretation:

- 1.1.1. Act means the Commonwealth Corporations Act 2001 and the Corporations Regulations 2001.
- 1.1.2. Board means the Board of Directors of the Institution as listed in Clause 23.1.
- 1.1.3. Committee means any special interest working party comprising of members, instituted and charged with managing, investigating and reporting on matters referred to it by the Board.
- 1.1.4. Co-operating Association means any organisation as may be approved by the Board and confirmed by the Institution in General Meeting from time to time.
- 1.1.5. Corporate Member means a Member with the grading of Honorary Fellow, Fellow, Member, Associate or Graduate of the Institution but does not include a member with the grading of Student.
- 1.1.6. C.P.D. means Continuing Professional Development and F.P.E.T. means Further Professional Education or Training.
- 1.1.7. Degree Award means a qualification granted by a University, which has been approved by the Board.
- 1.1.8. Director means a member of the Board from time to time.
- 1.1.9. Fee means any fee or subscription paid to the Institution, as determined by the Board.
- 1.1.10. Financial member means any member whose subscription is not more than two months in arrears.
- 1.1.14. Group means a Group established, with the consent of the Board, in a defined interest or geographical area, for the benefit of members of the Institution in that defined interest or area.
- 1.1.15. Institution means The Institution of Surveyors Victoria. For the purpose of calculating years of membership, Institution includes the former Institution of Surveyors Australia.
- 1.1.16. member means any person admitted to membership of the Institution and includes the grades of Honorary Fellow, Fellow, Member, Graduate, Associate, and Student. A member who is not a Corporate Member has all the rights and privileges of a Corporate Member other than the right to vote or to hold office. Where “member” is used in this context in the Constitution, it is written commencing with a lower case “m” to avoid confusion with the grades included in the definition ‘Corporate Member’ which is written commencing with an upper case “M”.
- 1.1.17. Officer has the same meaning as is ascribed to that word in the Act.
- 1.1.18. Prescribed Form means a form available from the Institution Honorary Secretary.
- 1.1.19. Returning Officer means any person or organisation appointed by the President for the purpose of conducting an election or poll.

1.1.20 Surveying, in its use in this Constitution as the name of an art, science, technology, profession, discipline, study or practice may include one or more of the following activities which can occur either on, above or below the surface of the land or the sea and may be carried out in association with other professionals:

- The determination of the size and shape of the earth and the measurement of all data needed to define the size, position, shape and contour of any part of the earth and monitoring any change therein.
- The positioning of objects in space and time as well as the positioning and monitoring of physical features, structures and engineering works on, above or below the surface of the earth.
- The development, testing and calibration of sensors, instruments and systems for the above-mentioned purposes and for other surveying purposes.
- The acquisition and use of spatial information from close range, aerial and satellite imagery and the automation of these processes.
- The determination of the position of the boundaries of public or private land, including national and international boundaries, and the registration of those lands with the appropriate authorities.
- The design, establishment and administration of geographic information systems (GIS) and the collection, storage, analysis, management, display and dissemination of data.
- The analysis, interpretation and integration of spatial objects and phenomena in GIS, including the visualisation and communication of such data in maps, models and mobile digital devices.
- The study of the natural and social environment, the measurement of land and marine resources and the use of such data in the planning of development in urban, rural and regional areas.
- The planning, development and redevelopment of property, whether urban or rural and whether land or buildings.
- The assessment of value and the management of property, whether urban or rural and whether land or buildings.
- The planning, measurement and management of construction works, including the estimation of costs.

1.1.21 Term means

- (a) in respect of the office of President, Honorary Secretary, Honorary Treasurer and Immediate Past President a period of approximately one year between two successive Annual General Meetings of the Institution; and
- (b) in respect of all other members of the Board a period of approximately two years between Annual General Meetings of the Institution.

1.2 Replaceable Rules

The replaceable rules contained in the Act do not apply to the Institution.

1.3. Interpretation

Headings are for convenience only and do not affect interpretation. The following rules of interpretation apply unless the context requires otherwise:

- 1.3.1. expressions referring to writing shall unless the contrary intention appears to be construed as including references to printing lithography and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form;
- 1.3.2. words importing only the singular number include the plural number and vice versa;
- 1.3.3. where a word or phrase is defined, its other grammatical forms have a corresponding meaning;
- 1.3.4. a reference to a clause or subclause is to a clause or subclause, as the case may be, of the rule or clause respectively, in which the reference appears;
- 1.3.5. a reference to any legislation or to any provision of any legislation includes any modification or re-enactment of it, any legislative provision substituted for it, and all regulations and statutory instruments issued under it;
- 1.3.6. except in so far as a contrary intention appears in this Constitution, an expression has, in a provision of this Constitution which relates to a particular provision of the Act, the same meaning as in that provision of the Act;
- 1.3.7. a mention of anything after include, includes or including does not limit what else might be included.

1.4. Actions authorised under the Act

Where the Act authorises or permits a company to do any matter or thing if so authorised by its Constitution, the Institution is and shall be taken by this rule to be authorised or permitted to do that matter or thing, despite any other provision of this Constitution.

- 3.13. if thought fit, to obtain any Act of Parliament dissolving the Institution and re-incorporating its members as a new Institution:
 - 3.13.1. or for any of the objects specified in this Constitution;
 - 3.13.2. or for effecting any other modification in the Institution's Constitution;
 - 3.13.3. or for enabling the Institution to carry any of its objects into effect.
- 3.14. to establish a Benevolent Trust to provide aid to members and/or dependents who through unforeseen circumstances, require welfare assistance
- 3.15. to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects. and for any or all of these said purposes to petition Parliament, or take such other proceedings as may be deemed expedient.

4. Operations Manual

To further the Objects and efficient operation of the Institution and in accordance with Clause 32, the Board may approve or amend guideline documents, which may be titled "policy documents", "rules" or "codes".

Such documents or amendments thereto will be provided to Directors at least thirty (30) days in advance of the meeting at which they are to be considered and will become guideline documents if approved in accordance with Clause 32.5. They will be added to the folder labelled "Operations Manual", forwarded to all Groups and made available to all members. Members shall also be advised of the general contents thereof by such means as the Board may determine.

5. Liability of members

- 5.1. The liability of the members is limited.
- 5.2. Every member of the Institution undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Institution, in the event of the same being wound up, during the time that they are a member, or within one year afterwards, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Institution contracted before the time at which they cease to be a member, and of the costs, charges, and expenses of winding up the same, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, such amount as may be required not exceeding one hundred ($100) dollars.

Application of Income and Property

6.1. Income and property to be applied for promotion of objects.

6.1.1. The income and property of the Institution howsoever derived shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Institution as set forth in this Constitution, and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit, to the persons who at any time are or have been members of the Institution, or to any of them, or to any person or organisation claiming under or through any of them. Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent payment, in good faith, of remuneration to any officers or servants of the Institution, or to any member thereof, or other person or organisation, in return for any services actually rendered to the Institution. Nothing in this clause shall limit the opportunity to pay to the President an honorarium to assist in offsetting the costs associated with acting as President. The value of the honorarium, if any, shall be determined by the Board each year.

6.2. Prohibition on dividends and distributions.

6.2.1. The Institution is prohibited from paying any dividends or otherwise making any distributions to members and from paying fees to the Directors.

6.3 Permitted payments

Neither Clause 6.1 nor Clause 6.2 prevents the Institution from making payments to any organisation or any person, including Officers, members and Employees for:

- 6.3.1. reasonable remuneration for services actually rendered to the Institution;
- 6.3.2. goods delivered to the Institution;
- 6.3.3. out-of-pocket (including for travel and accommodation) expenses incurred in the performance of a duty to the Institution or otherwise on Institution business;
- 6.3.4. commercially reasonable interest on money lent to the Institution;
- OR
- 6.3.5. commercially reasonable rent for property leased to the Institution.

6.4. Approval of payments to Directors.

6.4.1. The Board must approve all payments the Institution makes to Directors, including any payments authorised by Clause 6.3.

Application of Surplus on Winding up

7.1. Distribution of Surplus Property.

7.1.1. If upon winding up or dissolution of the Institution, there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Institution, but shall be given or transferred to some other institution, institute or instrumentality having objects similar to the objects of the Institution to be determined by the members of the Institution at or before the time of dissolution and in default thereof by the Supreme Court of Victoria.

8.1. For the purpose of registration the number of members of the Institution is declared to be two thousand (2000).

8.1.1. The Board may from time to time register such increase or decrease in that number as may be thought fit.

8.1.2. The members of the Institution shall be such persons as the Board shall admit to membership from time to time pursuant to the provisions of these Clauses and every person so admitted to membership shall be deemed to have agreed to be bound by the Constitution (formerly Memorandum and Articles of Association).

- 14.1 An application for admission to membership of the Institution shall be in writing in such form as the Board shall from time to time prescribe.

15. Entrance Fees, Subscriptions and Advancement Fees

- 15.1 Unless otherwise exempted, pursuant to the provisions of these Clauses every person elected to membership of the Institution shall pay such entrance fee, and every member shall pay such annual subscription as shall from time to time be fixed in respect of each grade of membership. The annual subscription shall be fixed by the Board at least one month before the due date.
- 15.2 Every Student, Associate or Graduate who advances to the grade of Associate, Graduate or Member shall pay such advancement fee as shall from time to time be fixed by the Board.
- 15.3 Entrance fees shall be payable in full forthwith upon notification by the Honorary Secretary to candidates of their election to membership of the Institution.

16. Annual Subscriptions

- 16.1 Annual subscriptions shall be paid on or before the 30th September in each year or such other date that the Board may determine provided always that any persons elected to membership after 1st January in any year shall be liable to pay such part of the annual subscription appropriate to their grade of membership as the Board shall determine from time to time and such reduced subscription shall fall due for payment immediately upon their election.
- 16.2 members advanced to a higher grade of membership during any year shall not be liable to pay any part of the subscription appropriate to that higher grade until 30th June next following the date of such advancement.
- 16.3 Members resident outside Australia and not exempt from the payment of annual subscription in accordance with Clause 17.3 shall pay a subscription not less than three quarters (3/4) of the annual subscription otherwise appropriate to their grade of membership. The amount of such subscription may be fixed to cover the budgeted cost to the Institution pursuant to their membership.

17. Exemption from or Variation of Annual Subscription

The Board may at its absolute discretion:

- 17.1. exempt or vary from the payment of any annual subscription or any arrears of subscription any member by reason of ill health, advanced age or other sufficient cause or reason.
- 17.2. exempt from the payment of any arrears of subscriptions the estate of any deceased member;
- 17.3. exempt from payment any member who notifies that they will be overseas for a period of up to 5 years, by granting a Leave of Absence, during which time they will have all rights of membership suspended.
- 17.4. exempt from the payment of any subscriptions or calls on any Honorary Fellows.
- 17.5. charge a member exempted from the payment of their annual subscription under Clause 17.1 or Clause 17.3 above, an annual amount, which shall not exceed the cost of supplying the member with regular copies of the journal or magazine published by the Institution or similar organisation with which the Institution unifies, merges, affiliates or cooperates.
- 17.6. require a member whose annual subscription has been made exempt or varied in accordance with Clause 17.1 to reapply for such exemption or variation by the due date for annual subscriptions each year.

18. Calls

- 18.1. The Board may having obtained the sanction of the members, call from time to time upon the members in amounts proportionate to their subscription to contribute funds for the general purposes of the Institution or any special object, and each member shall pay every call so made to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Board, but no member shall be required to pay more than one hundred ($100) dollars in calling in any one year.
- 18.2. For the purposes of Clause 18.1, the sanction of the members shall be sought by the Board, through the Secretary, by forwarding to each member printed circulars setting forth the purpose or purposes for which the money is required, the date on or before which the circular is returnable, not being less than thirty (30) days from the date of issue, and requesting an affirmative or negative reply. No call shall be made unless two thirds of the replies received shall affirm the desirability of making such call.

19. Resignation

- 19.1. Members of any grade desiring to discontinue their membership of the Institution shall tender their resignation in writing to the Board. If all of the member's dues and other indebtedness have been paid no further liabilities in respect of subscriptions to membership as from the date of receipt of the resignation shall accrue and the Board shall accept the resignation provided that no charges under Clause 16.1 are pending.

If all the member's dues and other indebtedness have not been paid:

- 19.1.1. the resignation shall not be accepted by the Board unless it considers that there have been circumstances in extenuation of the failure to make such payments, in which case the Board may authorise the acceptance of the resignation with exemption from payment of all or any of the indebtedness or subject to the member being liable for the subsequent payment of all or any of the indebtedness;
- 19.1.2. the Board may resolve to strike the member's name off;
- 19.1.3. Member's names shall be removed from the Register as from the date on which their resignation becomes effective. There shall be no refund for any unused portion of a subscription.

20. Termination of membership– Non Payment of Subscription

20.1. Subscriptions

- 20.1.1. The payment of annual subscriptions shall become due on the date notified.
- 20.1.2. Members whose annual subscription has not been paid by the due date shall forfeit all rights of membership except that their name shall not be removed from the register and shall be notified by the Honorary Secretary within twenty eight (28) days thereof, setting out their forfeiture of rights.
- 20.1.3. Members whose annual subscription remains unpaid for two (2) months after the due date shall be advised immediately and debarred from all privileges of membership and if the subscription remains unpaid for a further 28 days, the name of the defaulter shall be removed from the register, provided that the Board may reinstate the member on the same grade of membership previously held, on payment of all arrears under conditions as it may prescribe including a reinstatement fee, if the Board thinks it appropriate to do so, in compliance with the provisions of Clause 22.

21. Suspension or Expulsion of members

- 21.1. The Board at its absolute discretion shall have the power by resolution to censure, suspend or expel any member who has, in the opinion of the Board:
 - 21.1.1 failed to observe a reasonable standard of professional conduct; or
 - 21.1.2 wilfully refused or neglected to comply with the provisions of the Constitution of the Institution or its Code of Ethics, or
 - 21.1.3 been guilty or is guilty of any act, conduct or omission which the Board considers is unbecoming of a member or prejudicial to the best interests of the Institution or detrimental to its members; or
 - 21.1.4 exhibited conduct occurring in connection with the practice of surveying that falls short of the standard of competence and diligence that a member of the public is entitled to expect of a reasonably competent surveyor.
- 21.2. Such resolution may be passed by a special seventy-five (75%) percent majority of Directors present and voting at the meeting at which the resolution is to be considered.
- 21.3. Such members shall be notified of what is alleged against them at least twenty eight (28) days prior to the meeting of the Board at which the allegation is to be considered, and the member shall at such meeting and before the passing of such resolution have had an opportunity of giving orally or in writing any explanation or defence they may think fit.

The censure, suspension or expulsion shall result if the Board determines that the member has:

- 21.3.1. failed to observe a reasonable standard of professional conduct; or
- 21.3.2. wilfully refused or neglected to comply with the provisions of the Constitution of the Institution or its Code of Ethics; or
- 21.3.3. been guilty or is guilty of any act, conduct or omission which the Board considers is unbecoming of a member or prejudicial to the best interests of the Institution or detrimental to its members; or
- 21.3.4. exhibited conduct occurring in connection with the practice of surveying that falls short of the standard of competence and diligence that a member of the public is entitled to expect of a reasonably competent surveyor.

The Board may:

- 21.3.5. resolve that notwithstanding such allegation has been proved; the matter is not sufficiently serious to warrant suspension or expulsion of the member; or
- 21.3.6. by a special seventy-five (75%) percent majority of Directors present and voting at the meeting of the Board resolve that such member shall be:
 - (a) suspended from the rights and privileges of members of the Institution for such period as the Board in such resolution shall determine: or
 - (b) be expelled from the Institution.
- 21.4 The Honorary Secretary shall forthwith give any member who is the subject of such proceedings notice in writing of the Board's decision.
- 21.5 Any member suspended in accordance with this Clause shall have no right to vote at any meeting or to hold office in the Institution or to have or exercise any of the other rights or privileges of membership, including the use of the abbreviated designation after their name appropriate to their grade of membership, during the period of their suspension. Nevertheless their obligations under Clauses 5.2, 15.1 and 18.1 shall stand, and they shall be entitled to receive the publications of the Institution.
- 21.6 Any member expelled from the Institution in accordance with this Clause shall cease to be a member of the Institution and shall have henceforth no rights or interest in any property or assets of the Institution and their name shall be removed from the Register.
- 21.7 Any application by an expelled member for readmission to the Institution shall not be considered by the Board for a period of at least twelve (12) months from the date of expulsion or such longer period as determined by the Board.

Re-admission

- 22.1. Upon written application of a person whose name has been removed from the register under the provisions of Clause 20.1.3 or Clause 21.6 the Board may re-admit such a person under conditions as it may prescribe.
- 22.2. A person seeking readmission under the provisions of this Clause whose name has been removed from the register under Clause 20.1.3 or Clause 21.6 may, at the discretion of the Board, be re-admitted at the grade of membership held immediately prior to their resignation.

23.The Board

- 33.2 Not less than half the number of Directors shall form a quorum.
- 33.3 Subject to these Clauses, questions arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes of those present and a majority determination shall for all purposes be deemed a determination of the Board. In case of an equality of votes the chairperson of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
- 33.4 No resolution passed at any meeting of the Board shall be rescinded at any subsequent meeting, unless notice of the intention to propose such rescission shall have been given in the circular convening the meeting.
- 33.5 Voting by proxy at Board Meetings is specifically restricted to voting on Fellowship and Honorary Fellowship nominations pursuant to Clause 11.

Powers & Duties of the Honorary Secretary

- 36.1. The Honorary Secretary shall take charge of the books and documents of that office and cause correct entries to be made in the books of all matters and things to be entered therein in the ordinary course of the proceedings of the Institution and shall whenever required by Directors render to them an account of all transactions matters and things relating to the Institution or its affairs over which the Honorary Secretary may have control or cognisance.
- 36.2. The Honorary Secretary shall convene all meetings of the Board required in the ordinary course of business at such time and place as may from time to time be determined by the resolutions of the Board and, in the absence of any resolution by the Board, at such time or place as the President may determine.
- 36.3. The Honorary Secretary shall convene all ordinary and special general meetings of the members of the Institution in accordance with the resolution of any general meeting or of the Board and in the absence of any such resolution it shall be the duty of the Honorary Secretary to convene the ordinary general meetings of the Institution at some time during the week or month determined upon for holding the same by, or pursuant to, these Clauses, and in the event of no directions being given by the Board as to convening a special general meeting upon the requisition of members, the Honorary Secretary shall convene such meeting within the time limited in that behalf under Clause 38.3.

Powers & Duties of the Honorary Treasurer

The Honorary Treasurer shall:-

- 37.1. have the charge and custody of all moneys belonging to the Institution and shall as soon as may be possible after the receipt of any such moneys pay the same to the credit of the Institution into such bank as the Board may from time to time determine;
- 37.2. furnish to the Board at the meeting next before the Annual General Meeting of the Institution a detailed report of the Institution's financial position and shall accompany such report by a properly drawn balance sheet which shall be vouched for and certified to by the auditor of the Institution; and
- 37.3. be prepared at all regular meetings of the Board to give a statement of the Institution's current account.

- 38.1. The Annual General Meeting of the Institution shall be held no later than the end of October each year at such time and place as may be determined by the Board.
- 38.2. Ordinary General Meetings of the Institution to be known as Ordinary General Meetings, shall be held at such time and place as may be determined by the Board.
- 38.3. Special General Meetings. The President may whenever thought fit and shall upon a requisition made in writing by Corporate Members holding at least five (5%) percent of the votes that may be cast, or at least one hundred (100) Corporate Members of the Institution, convene a Special General Meeting of the Institution, to be held as soon as practicable but in any case not later than fifty six (56) days after the receipt of any such requisition.
- 38.3.1. Any requisition for a Special General Meeting made by Corporate Members of the Institution shall state the objects of the meeting and shall be signed by the requisitionists and shall be deposited at the registered office of the Institution and may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more requisitionists.
- 38.3.2. If the President shall not within twenty one (21) days after the date of the deposit of the requisition proceed to convene a meeting, the requisitionists, or a majority of them, may themselves convene a meeting but any meeting so convened shall not be held after the expiration of three (3) months from the date of depositing such requisition.
- 38.3.3. Any meeting convened as aforesaid by requisitionists shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings are to be convened by the President and the register of Corporate Members shall be made available to them for such purpose.
- 38.4 Subject to the provisions of any statute or of these Clauses calling for longer notice, twenty one (21) days notice at the least (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served but inclusive of the day for which notice is given) shall be given to such persons as are entitled to receive such notices from the Institution, specifying the place, the day and the hour of meeting. In the case of special business, a statement of the general nature of that business and any notices of Motion to be put at the meeting.

- 39.1. Twenty (20) Corporate Members present in person or by their representatives shall form a quorum for any general meeting. No person shall be entitled to be counted in a quorum or to exercise a vote unless they or their representative is a financial Corporate Member of the Institution.
- 39.2. The President or in their absence the President Elect shall preside as Chairperson at every general meeting. If neither the President or President Elect be present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for the meeting the Corporate Members present shall choose one (1) of their number to be Chairperson.
- 39.3. If within thirty (30) minutes from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Corporate Members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned until a day appointed by the Board and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum of Corporate Members is not present it shall be dissolved.
- 39.4. The Chairperson may with the consent of any general meeting adjourn the same from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- 39.5. Every question submitted to a meeting shall be decided by a majority of the Corporate Members present and entitled to vote by a show of hands unless a poll or a postal vote is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands or, in the case of a demand for a postal vote, before the adjournment of the meeting) demanded:
- 39.5.1. by any ten (10) Corporate Members present.

- 39.6. Unless a poll or a postal vote is so demanded a declaration by the Chairperson that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the proceedings of the Institution shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution. The demand for a poll or for a postal vote may be withdrawn.
- 39.7. If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the Chairperson directs, and the result of the poll shall be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded but a poll demanded on the election of a Chairperson or scrutineers or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith.
- 39.7.1. At any time before the conclusion or adjournment of a General Meeting any ten (10) Corporate Members present may demand a postal vote on any motion, not being one for the appointment of a chairperson or scrutineers or for the adjournment of the meeting, which has been put to the meeting.
- 39.7.2. The General Meeting at which a postal vote is demanded shall appoint two (2) scrutineers, one of whom shall be a Director, who shall open the voting papers, count the votes and report in writing to the Board the result of the voting which shall be deemed to be a resolution of the Institution in General Meeting.
- 39.7.3. The demand for a postal vote shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the postal vote has been demanded.
- 39.7.4. Within fourteen (14) days of the meeting at which a postal vote is demanded the Honorary Secretary will cause voting papers to be prepared and sent to all Corporate Members entitled to vote and only those papers returned to the Institution within thirty (30) days of such meeting shall be counted in the vote. Except to the extent herein provided all procedures to be adopted in relation to postal voting shall be determined from time to time by the Board.
- 39.8. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands, a poll or after a postal vote, the Chairperson of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll or postal vote is demanded shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
- 39.9. Only Corporate Members shall be entitled to vote at general meetings of the Institution. On a show of hands every Corporate Member present shall have one (1) vote.
- 39.9.1. On a poll every Corporate Member present in person or by proxy shall have one (1) vote.
- 39.9.2. In a postal vote every Corporate Member shall have one (1) vote.
- 39.10. No person shall be appointed a proxy who is not themselves a Corporate Member of the Institution and entitled to be present and to vote in their own right at the meeting.
- 39.11. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or their attorney duly authorised in writing. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a division or a postal vote.
- 39.12. Every instrument of proxy shall be as near as the circumstances will admit in the form or to the effect shown as Appendix A and shall be deposited at the office of the Institution. The President or a Director appointed by the President shall open the envelope containing such Instrument and shall instruct the Secretary to verify and prepare a list of the proxies so deposited.
- 39.13. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed or an office copy or notarially certified copy thereof shall be deposited at the office of the Institution not less than forty eight (48) hours before the time for the meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote.
- 39.14. After all business introduced by the Board and all special business has been disposed of it shall be competent for any Corporate Member of the Institution to bring under the notice of the meeting any business or matter within the objects or purposes of the Institution and to give any notice they may think fit of one (1) or more propositions to be considered at a future meeting.

39.15. In all cases of dispute, doubt or difficulty respecting or arising out of matters of procedure or order the decision of the chairperson shall be final and conclusive.

40. Custody of Moneys

40.1. All cheques drawn upon the bankers of the Institution shall be signed by two (2) persons being the Honorary Treasurer or a nominee, and one (1) other person being the President, President Elect, the Honorary Secretary or such other persons as the Board shall from time to time nominate.

40.2. No securities deposited with the bankers of the Institution shall be delivered by them without an order of two (2) Directors or one (1) Director and the Honorary Treasurer.

40.3. All moneys payable to the Institution shall be received by the Honorary Treasurer or some other person authorised by the Board and shall be paid into the banking account of the Institution.

40.4. Cheques or other negotiable instruments paid to the Institution's bankers for collection and requiring the endorsement of the Institution may be endorsed on its behalf by the Honorary Secretary or such other person as the Board shall from time to time appoint.

41. Inspection of Books and Documents

41.1. The Board shall from time to time determine when and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions and regulations the accounts and books of the Institution or any of them shall be open for the inspection of Corporate Members. No Corporate Member shall have the right of inspecting any account book or document of the Institution except as conferred by statute, or authorised by the Board or by a resolution of the Institution in General Meeting.

41.2. All communications, correspondence, reports, minutes and other papers relating to the admission of members (including the reports of the Committees) or to the suspension or forfeiture of membership of any member or to other proceedings under Clause 21 hereof shall be privileged and confidential.

42. Common Seal

The Board shall provide for safe custody of the seal, which shall only be used by the authority of the Board and every instrument to which the seal is affixed shall be signed by the President or President-Elect and one other Director.

43. Audit

Properly qualified auditors shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with the Act.

44. Notices

44.1. Notices generally

44.1.1 Any member who has not left, or sent to the registered office, a place of address, facsimile number or an email address (for registration in the register) at or to which all notices and documents of the Institution may be served or sent shall not be entitled to receive any notice.

A notice may be given by the Institution to any member by:

44.1.2 serving it on the member personally;

44.1.3 sending it by post to the member or leaving it at the member's address as shown in the register or the address supplied by the member to the Institution for the giving of notices;

44.1.4 fax to the fax number supplied by the member to the Institution for the giving of notices;

OR

44.1.5 transmitting it electronically to the email address given by the member to the Institution for the giving of notices.

44.2. Notice to a member whose address for notices is outside Australia shall be sent by airmail, courier, fax or email or any other method which ensures the notice is received within reasonable time.

44.3. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be taken to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the notice and to have been effected:

44.3.1. in the case of a notice of a meeting, on the day next after the date of its posting; and

44.3.2. in any other case, at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

44.4 Where a notice is sent by fax or electronic transmission, service of the notice shall be taken to be effected by properly addressing and sending or transmitting the notice and to have been effected on the business day after it is sent.

44.5 Notices of General Meeting

44.5.1. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in the manner authorised by Clause 44.1.

44.5.2. Notices will be sent to every member and to each Director.

44.5.3. Notices will be sent to the auditor for the Institution.

44.6 Except as required by the Act, no other person is entitled to receive notice of general meetings.

45. Removal of Officers

The Institution may at a General Meeting by a majority of seventy-five percent (75%) of the Corporate Members present remove any Director of the Institution before the expiration of their period of office and may by resolution appoint any eligible person in their stead. The person so appointed shall hold office until such a time as an election or an appointment (as the case may be) for the position has been determined in accordance with Clauses 28 and 29.

46. Indemnity of Officers

46.1. Indemnification of Officers or auditors

To the extent permitted by law, the Institution must indemnify each person who is, or has been, an Officer or auditor of the Institution against any liability incurred as an Officer or auditor, except where the liability:

46.1.1. is owed to the Institution or a related body corporate;

46.1.2. arises out of conduct involving a lack of good faith;

46.1.3. is for a pecuniary penalty order under section 1317G of the Act;

46.1.4. is for a compensation order under section 1317H of the Act; or 46.1.5. is for legal costs.

46.2. Indemnification for legal costs

To the extent permitted by law, the Institution must indemnify each officer against any liability for legal costs incurred in defending an action for a liability incurred as an officer of the Institution, except if the costs are incurred:

- 46.2.1. in defending or resisting proceedings in which the person is found to have a liability for which they could not be indemnified under Clause 46.1;
- 46.2.2. in defending or resisting criminal proceedings in which the person is found guilty;
- 46.2.3. in defending or resisting proceedings brought by the Australian Securities & Investments Commission or a liquidator for a court order if the grounds for making the order are found by the court to have been established;

OR

- 46.2.4. in connection with proceedings for relief to the person under the Act in which the court denies the relief.

- 46.2.4.1. Clause 46.2.3 does not apply to costs incurred in responding to actions taken by the Australian Securities & Investments Commission or a liquidator as part of an investigation before commencing proceedings for the court order.

46.3. Loans or advances for legal costs.

The Institution may give an officer a loan or advance in respect of legal costs for defending an action for a liability incurred as an officer of the Institution, provided that such loan or advance does not contravene the Act.

46.4. Insurance for officers and auditor.

The Institution may pay or agree to pay a premium for a contract insuring a person who is or has been an officer or auditor of the Institution against any liability other than:

- 46.4.1. one for legal costs;
- 46.4.2. conduct involving a wilful breach of duty in relation to the Institution; or
- 46.4.3. a contravention of section 182 or 183 of the Act.

46.5. Limitation on Institution's obligation to indemnify.

- 46.5.1. The Institution need not indemnify a person as provided for in Clauses 46.1 or 46.2 in respect of a liability to the extent that the person is entitled to compensation in respect of that liability under a contract of insurance.

46.6. The Institution may enter into documents for indemnity and insurance policy

To the extent permitted by law the Institution may enter into any:

- 46.6.1. documentary indemnity in favour of; or
- 46.6.2. Insurance policy for the benefit of, a person who is, or has been, an Officer or auditor of the Institution.

46.7. Term of indemnity.

- 46.7.1. The benefit of each indemnity given in Clauses 46.1 or 46.2 continues, even after its terms or the terms of this paragraph are modified or deleted, in respect of a liability arising out of acts or omissions occurring prior to the modification or deletion.
